

Propose work for

The Store at Contemporary Craft

The Store, within Society for Contemporary Craft, is a retail space offering unique handmade items from some of the best craft artists across the nation. We are always on the lookout for new artists and we accept work based on a number of criteria. Appointments may be scheduled after submissions are reviewed. No walk-ins will be considered and not all submissions will receive a reply.

The Store works on a 50/50 split consignment basis. Accepted artists are responsible for shipping and insuring any work sent to SCC. SCC assumes responsibility for shipping and insuring any unsold work returned to the artist.

Criteria

- Artists must work in craft media: ceramics, wood, metal/jewelry, glass, found materials, mixed media, fiber or a combination of these materials
- High-quality execution; use of craft skills such as finishing details, technical skills and experience with materials & function
- Salability, pricing and marketability of the work
- Innovation and creativity in use of technique and/or approach to medium
- Size and scale which works with The Store space

The following types of work are not eligible:

- Two-dimensional pieces including paintings, drawings, prints, photographs, posters, etc
- Materials and/or supplies created to make other products
- Items made solely from assemblage of purchased commercial supplies/objects
